Resurrection- in Rabbinic Literature

1  Bleich, J. David  Resurrection and personal identity.  Tradition 45,3 (2012) 73-88  2012  Fulltext

2  Neusner, Jacob,1931-  The restoration of Israel : soteriology in rabbinic Judaism.  This World and the World to Come (2011) 285-296  2011

4  Lehnardt, Andreas  Massekhet Kutim and the resurrection of the dead.  Samaritans - Past and Present (2010) 175-192  2010

5  Osborne, Grant R.  Jesus’ empty tomb and his appearance in Jerusalem.  Key Events in the Life of the Historical Jesus (2010) 775-823  2010

9  Yuval, Israel Jacob  All Israel have a portion in the world to come.  Redefining First-Century Jewish and Christian Identities (2008) 114-138  2008

19
Avery-Peck, Alan J.
Death and afterlife in the early rabbinic sources: the Mishnah, Tosefta, and early Midrash compilations.
Judaism in Late Antiquity IV (2000) 243-266  2000

20
Fine, Steven
A note on ossuary burial and the resurrection of the dead in first-century Jerusalem.

1
Flusser, David, 1917-2000
Resurrection and angels in rabbinic Judaism, early Christianity, and Qumran
The Dead Sea Scrolls Fifty Years after Their Discovery (2000) 568-572  2000

22
Neusner, Jacob, 1932-
Death and afterlife in the later rabbinic sources: the two Talmuds and associated Midrash-compilations.

23
Kahn, Ari D.
"These bones will live!"

24
Alexander, Daniel S.
Is God stronger than death? "Tehiyyat hametim" reconsidered

25
Stemberger, Günter, 1940-
Zur Auferstehungslehre in der rabbinischen Literatur.
Kairos 15 (1973) 238-266  1973